

MILTON BANK IS ROBBED

Burglars Break Open Vault Last Night and Get Over $2,000.

WAS SCIENTIFIC WORK

Only Professionals Could Have Done it so Deftly, Quietly and Quickly.

THEY GOT AWAY WITHOUT LEAVING A TRACE BEHIND.

Lively Little Town Wakes Up to a Morning of Excitement—Vault Was Opened With Drills But Time Lock Could Not Be Mastered by Thieves and About $10,000 in Cash Was Saved From Their Clutches—Private Deposit Boxes Within Vault All Rifled—Burglars Steal a Horse and Buggy and Escape.

Milton, Wis., Nov. 23.—[Special Telegram]—The town of Milton woke up to wild excitement this morning. It was discovered that the Bank of Milton had been burglarized during the night, and that the institution had been robbed of over $2,000 in cash, stamps and bonds.

The news spread like wildfire, and the bank building was soon surrounded by an excited throng of citizens.

The robbery seems to have been the work of professionals. An attempt had been made to drill the vault, but it was unsuccessful. The outer door was forced open, but the time lock resisted the efforts of the thieves. This saved the bank from $3,000 to $10,000 in cash stored within.

But they secured between $300 and $400 worth of revenue stamps stored in the outer compartments of the vault; also a quantity of silver in change, which had not been put behind the time lock.

The private deposit boxes within the vault had all been broken into, and the contents scattered. How much this will amount to cannot be ascertained until the depositors can be heard from. Clark Crandall of Cartwright, Wis., it is known has lost $1,500 worth of government bonds stored in a deposit box. Others are also known to have suffered loss.

The burglars entered by a rear door and their work was conducted so cautiously that no one became aware of their presence, although there were people living on each side of the bank. To this fact it is no doubt owing, that no dynamite could be used to blow open the time lock as the noise would certainly have drawn attention to their operations.

It is certain that the burglars took all the time they needed, bagged all the valuables they could lay their hands on and left when they got ready with all their tools and implements. Not a trace is left by which they may be followed or identified if caught.

It was as clean a piece of work as has ever been accomplished in this part of the state.

The Bank of Milton is a prosperous establishment. It has a capital of $30,000. A. S. Maxon is president and P. M. Green, cashier.

Sheriff Appleby was called up from Janesville and arrived here before 9 o'clock this morning. He is making a thorough investigation and every effort is being made to catch the robbers.

The burglars stole F. B. Ballard's horse, harness and wagon and escaped with it and their plunder. It is thought that they drove south.

At an early hour this morning the news of the Milton bank robbery reached Janesville in a message to Sheriff W. H. Appleby. Without waiting for further particulars the sheriff was soon on his way to Milton where he arrived an hour after the news reached the jail. He then set to work securing evidence and an account of the stolen property. Several messages were immediately wired to the police of the surrounding towns.

On Milton avenue in this city this morning a stolen horse and buggy was discovered and it is thought that this outfit belongs at Milton and that the robbers drove to this city after committing the deed.

Sheriff Appleby returned to Janesville at 11:30 o'clock. In speaking of the robbery he said: "The robbers entered through a window and made their escape through the same exit. I examined carefully the bank books and find $1,720 is missing in government bonds, $100 in revenue stamps and $300 in silver. The silver was in a bag on top of the inner safe which was undisturbed, the thieves being unable to open it on account of the time lock. We have a good idea of who the guilty parties are and arrests are liable to follow soon."

DEWEY BACK IN FAVOR

Explanation of the Home Transaction is Most Satisfactory to All Concerned.

Washington, Nov. 23.—The final deed transferring the Dewey house to the Admiral's son proves to be the creation of a trust which gives to Admiral and Mrs. Dewey a life interest in the property which descends absolutely to George Goodwin Dewey upon their death.

The whole transaction therefore is in the nature of a settlement of the property upon the Admiral's son. The same thing could have been done by means of a direct deed from the Admiral and Mrs. Dewey, but the course of dealing the property to a trustee then to Mrs. Dewey and by her to the son, was adopted, it is said, to put on record the fact that after she had the property in her own possession she voluntarily and gladly decided it over to the son by a former marriage.

This disposition of the property seems to prove entirely satisfactory even to the most captious critic, and the sudden outburst from the public has subsided as quickly as it rose.

The only regret expressed is that the Admiral did not take the members of the committee into his confidence, so that the matter might get before the people properly or else record the whole series of deeds at the same time.

Admiral Dewey's characteristically frank statement regarding the transfer of the gift house had the effect, almost instantaneously, of hushing adverse criticism. Telegrams are now pouring in upon him from all parts of the country, containing messages of sympathy and congratulating him upon taking the public into his confidence as to the motives which dictated the transfer. The admiral is pleased at the turn of events and hopes the incident is closed.

PROFIT IN SPANISH WRECKS

Company Gets Salvage Worth $50,000 From Cervera's Ships.

Santiago de Cuba, Nov. 23.—The wreckers working on the sunken Spanish armored cruiser, Almirante Oquendo yesterday discovered a chest containing $19,000 in Spanish gold, which the Cendoya Company, the firm employing the divers, will retain.

Work on the cruiser has been in progress five months and many thousands of dollars worth of treasure has been secured. The safe was found in the bottom where it fell during the burning of the ship.

Only a few days ago the wreckers began on the torpedo boat destroyer Furor. They have already found a service of heavy silver plate. Experts assert, after inspecting the destroyer, that she might easily have been raised and repaired.

The wreckers' operations have proved a source of large returns to the companies, estimated at $300,000.

TROOPS ARE UNDER A CLOUD

Grave Doings on Board the U. S. Transport Tartar

Washington, Nov. 23.—Secretary of War Root has upon his desk a sensational report of riotous, mutinous and criminal offenses committed aboard the transport Tartar, which brought the Kansas troops from Manila to this country.

According to reports, the Tartar was for some days a floating hell, the most serious crimes being committed against persons, including women. If these reports be substantiated it is believed the offenders will be shot under military law.

This is the second investigation which has been had of the Tartar affair, and up to this time the Secretary of War has refused to make public the report or give out any facts concerning the alleged crimes committed on board the transport.

Under the decisions of the courts, volunteers mustered out of the service cannot be prosecuted under military law but if it turns out that any of the staff or regular army officers aboard the Tartar have been guilty of scandalous conduct the Secretary of War will promptly order a court-martial to try them.

The Prince and Princess of Wales visited the Red Cross ship yesterday and were greatly interested in the arrangements which have been made. The American hospital ship will sail as soon as the nurses and equipment arrive.

King of the Dudes a Bankrupt

New York, Nov. 23.—E. Berry Wall, once "King of the Dudes," filed a petition in bankruptcy today. Mr. Wall, always of a cheerful mind, at last confesses he is "broke"; liabilities, $9,384; assets, nothing, but clothing and jewelry worth $250, which are exempt. At certain stages of Mr. Wall's career he had $250 worth of cuffs. In the list is the entry: "Deimos, $1,029, account in 1886," which was the year when Mr. Wall abdicated his throne and assigned to his mother the remnant of the fortune his father, the cordage magnate, left him.

Gen. Alger May Rule Cuba

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 23.—A special dispatch from Washington says: "An ex-congressman from the west, who enjoys relations of peculiar intimacy with the administration, gives utterance to a statement which has been vaguely rumored for some time to the effect that Gen. Alger has been considered for the position of civil governor of Cuba."

HERAT RUMOR IS REVIVED

Russians Have Occupied the Gates to Afghanistan

London, Nov. 23.—The Star displays a Vienna dispatch containing information from St. Petersburg that the Russians have occupied Herat. This is not improbable, as it coincides with the forecasts which the Times published ten days ago from its St. Petersburg correspondent, but the report lacks definiteness and official authority.

London, Nov. 23.—A special dispatch from Vienna reiterates the report, which was denied last week, that the Russians had occupied Herat.

BABCOCK IS POPULAR

Wisconsin Congressman May be Advanced to a Position on Committee on Rules.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Representative Babcock of Wisconsin arrived here today and was in consultation with General Henderson of Iowa in regard to the attendance of the members of the house at the funeral of Vice President Hobart.

The Wisconsin member refused to discuss the action of Congress on financial and other matters, saying he would prefer to wait until he knew something of what would be done before expressing an opinion.

Mr. Babcock has been at the head of the District of Columbia committee for four years, and during the last session frequently expressed his willingness to give up the place, which involved an immense amount of work. It is assumed, therefore, that he would still be glad to make a change. He is, therefore, the most likely candidate for membership on the Committee on Rules, the controlling body of the house.

Mr. Babcock was General Henderson's personal representative during the brief fight for the nomination, and possesses the absolute confidence of the new speaker. If the Rules committee, so far as the republicans are concerned, is made up of the speaker, Dazell of Pennsylvania, and Babcock of Wisconsin, it will be acceptable to the ranks and file, for Representative Babcock is peculiarly and deservedly popular on both sides of the house, and can count up almost as many warm personal friends as the speaker himself.

In case the Rules committee is thus constituted General Grosvenor will undoubtedly be made chairman of the Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries, where he could take charge of the Hanna-Payne shipping bill.

CHARLESTON IS LOST

All Attempts to Save Her Guns and Stores Have Been Abandoned.

Washington, Nov. 23.—[Special Telegram]—All hopes of rescuing the cruiser Charleston or of saving valuable wreckage from her was abandoned this morning by the naval authorities on receipt of the following from Cavite.

"The Charleston was last seen November thirteenth under water from stern to smokestack. Three unsuccessful attempts were made to get near her. A heavy typhoon has prevailed since. Expect Culego with later news. Signed Leutze."

Leutze is commander of the Montezuma, and temporarily in charge at the Cavite naval station. Officers here think the vessel is breaking to pieces rapidly, as the last previous report said the water was within six feet of the name plate. The Culego mentioned is the naval refrigerator ship which left Hong Kong with skilled wreckers to make an attempt at least to save Charleston's guns and stores.

ROUT THE DERVISHES

Wax for Floors.

The best wax for hardwood floors is a preparation of turpentine and beeswax, properly melted together. The chief mistake that amateurs make is to apply this wax too generously. An expert in this matter says that a pound of wax ought to cover 300 feet of surface. After the wax is applied and rubbed in with a weighted brush it should be allowed to stand for a while and a second coat applied before the floor is used.

Celluloid Textile Fabric.

SHELLING THE BRITISH CAMP

Battle is Momentarily Expected at Estcourt or the Mooi River Camp.

JOUBERT IN COMMAND

Indications That Estcourt Must Soon Fall Into Hands of Boer Army.

Burglers Pursuing the Advantages They Have Gained With Unusual Vigor—Making British Garrison is Suffering For the Want of Pure Water and a Malignant Fever Has Broken Out—Shelling of the Town Continues Night and Day.

Pietermaritzburg, Nov. 23.—[Special Cablegram]—The Boers have resumed the shelling of the British camp on the Mooi river. The bombardment is heavy. It is said that Gen. Joubert himself is leading the seven thousand Boers who are believed to be between here and the Mooi river. The inhabitants are all well armed fearing that the Boers are preparing to make a dash on the capital.

Battle Momentarily Expected.
Durban, Nov. 23.—[Special Cablegram]—A battle is momentarily expected at Estcourt or the Mooi river camp. Much apprehension is felt over the result as it is the Dundee-Glencoe situation over again. The strength of the Boers at these places is not known, but it is certain that the British are outnumbered.

Natal farmers are complaining to the British over the advance of the Boers and claim that their possessions are endangered. The British authorities replied that the Boers will not harm them, but the Dutch lack faith and continue to leave the colony in large numbers.

Durban Fears the Boers

The possibility of the Pietermaritzburg garrison of one thousand men having fallen back is being given serious consideration. The town's defenses are being strengthened as it is feared if Pietermaritzburg falls the Boers will come to the coast. Such a possibility was inconceivable a month ago. It has been stated that the Boers would never approach Durban for fear of the navy guns on the battle ships here. It is certain that if the Boers could reach the bluffs overlooking the town they could seriously impede the landing of troops from the transports.

Making in Sore Straits

London, Nov. 23.—[Special Cablegram]—A Mafeking dispatch Nov. 20, says that the garrison is suffering from want of pure water. Fever has also broken out and many are sick. The desultory shelling of the town continues.

New Pitcher for Iced Drinks.

The new pitcher for serving iced drinks is an English invention, and beautifully presented in both green and ruby glass. To put ice directly in the beverage weakens its strength and flavor. This is obviated by the introduction into the new pitcher of a glass inner cylinder (resembling a lamp chimney as much as anything), with a silver top and screw cork. In this the cracked ice lasts a long time, the drink poured from the pitcher proper, and renewed again and again as required.

New Menu Cards.

New menu cards come in the form of fruit and vegetables, such as apples, pears, potatoes, exaggerated cherries, cucumbers, lemons and peaches. They are colored like the natural fruits and the menu is written on the under side in italics, says the Baltimore Herald. The cards are fastened to a piece of satin ribbon, on which is painted the

AT RATE OF 122,000 WORDS AN HOUR

REMARKABLE TEST OF FAST TELEGRAPHY AT CHICAGO.

Speed Trials Between Chicago and Milwaukee and Chicago and Buffalo—First Time the Marvelous Electrical Device is Ever Successfully used in This Country.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Telegraph messages were transmitted yesterday by the Pollak-Virag system from Chicago to Milwaukee and return at the rate of 122,000 words an hour. Later, on a test covering the longest distance ever attempted by the inventors, "dots" and "dashes" were sent to Buffalo and back at the rate of 90,000 words an hour, covering a total distance of 1,062 miles.

Preliminary experiments were made during the morning, and in the afternoon a number of electricians witnessed the demonstrations. Through J. O. Barclay, electrician for the Western Union Telegraph Company, the wires to Milwaukee were placed at the disposal of the inventor. The light flashed the return on the message, and Herr Virag gradually increased the speed of the machine until it was working successfully at the rate of 140,000 words an hour. Then he closed it down, smiled with satisfaction and said in broken English, "It is working all right."

The system includes two operations—the mechanical transferring of the message to be sent on an endless ribbon and its translation through the receiving instrument by means of the application of certain principles of electricity, magnetism, optics and chemistry.

The inventors make claim for their apparatus that it will be of great utility because it will enable a single wire to transmit the extraordinary number of 140,000 words an hour. At present a telegrapher will click off less than 2,000 words an hour. At these figures, one wire, they explain, will do the work of seventy.

Wireless Telegraphy at Milwaukee. Milwaukee, Nov. 23.—A successful public test of wireless telegraphy under the Johnson-Fortier system was given last night. Messages were sent 150 feet and through half a dozen partitions in a leading hotel. The apparatus used in the sending and receiving of messages consists of the ordinary key and sounder in connection with an induction or spark coil. The system is altogether different from Marconi's invention.

Professor Warren S. Johnson and Charles L. Fortier claim for their invention that messages can be transmitted almost any distance at the rate of ten or twelve words per minute. The distance which a message may be sent is regulated by the size of the induction or sparking coil. The characters transmitted can be recorded as well as received by sound.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 23.—Articles of incorporation were filed with the secretary of state today of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company of America, with an authorized capital of $10,000,000, one-half of which is preferred stock with 8 per cent, noncumulative dividend.

"To rob a tear of all its terrors" take "Orange" as directed.

WATCH IS WEARING APPAREL

Important Decision Made by the United States District Court

Judge Seaman of the United States district court, Milwaukee, has decided that a watch usually carried upon the person of a man who has gone into bankruptcy, constitutes wearing apparel, and is therefore exempt, finding that the statute imposes no requirements of "ordinary or usual" service, and that it is therefore exempt.

The decision was made in the case of John Roland Jones, Jr., of Racine. The bankrupt appealed from the decision of Referee Charles H. Lee of Racine, the referee holding that a gold watch, gold chain with a Masonic charm and a uniform and paraphernalia were not exempt.

There have been a diversity of decisions on this point, the question being made difficult through the absence of a definition by the supreme court of Wisconsin of the term "wearing apparel," as employed in the bankruptcy act.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS MEET

Beloit Free Press Has a Word to Say About Janesville Meeting

In speaking of the W. R. C. meeting held in Janesville yesterday the Beloit Free Press says:

"The days of '61 were recalled today by the dinner of the Woman's Relief Corps at their convention in Janesville. The W. R. C. is the direct descendant of the Ladies Aid Society which assisted the men in service in the war. At their meetings in those dark days every lady brought her own lunch and the ladies of the W. R. C. are today holding one of those old dinners. Every lady who went to the convention from Beloit this morning carried a lunch basket and at noon a great picnic dinner was the result. It was not only a revival of the old custom but proved to be a thoroughly enjoyable arrangement."

No Time Like Now.

The new lines of railroad now in process of construction by the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad Company are at present affording opportunities to get in and grow up with a country that is sure to grow that are not likely to occur again.

The new lines penetrate the richest regions in Western Iowa and Minnesota, where there was ample room for a railroad. The towns along these new lines, located and managed by the Railway Company, are today offering rare chances for investments or locations. The country is rich and towns will surely thrive.

Prices of lots are still low. Investors and business men of all classes will find it to their advantage to investigate. The choice timber lands of Northern Wisconsin and Michigan are also well worth looking into.

SAMUEL M. SMITH TALKS IRON ADVANCE

JANESVILLE MAN PREDICTS RUIN FOR MANY.

Says That the Advance of Raw Material Will Prove the Ruin of Many Small Concerns—Milwaukee Journal Man Interviews—Other Points About the Business.

Wishing to thoroughly investigate the rumored advance in the price of iron the Milwaukee Journal sent a representative to Janesville this week who interviewed Samuel M. Smith of the Janesville machine company. The Journal quotes Mr. Smith as follows:

"It is a fact that the advance in the raw material will prove the ruin of many of the smaller concerns," said Mr. Smith, "and although every effort has been made to advance the price of the manufactured product proportionately it has been impossible. For instance, the Northwestern Plow association has raised the price of all its products 25 per cent., which is 100 per cent less than the advance in ore, it has been found impossible to sell when it is put any higher. We were able to contract for our year's need before the advance and consequently were not much affected, but smaller concerns will be forced to the wall unless something happens very soon."

"This has been the largest year we ever had in a business way, 1872 being the only season that compared with it in any way. Things seem to be going better along the line. When the hard times came on, everybody ran low in stock; you know, and the dealers are being forced now to replenish. The farmers are directly responsible for the picking up in business, and the two big crops they had out west made things good everywhere."

"In my opinion so far the advance in raw material has been legitimate, but if it continues it will be due largely to the trust problem. We haven't raised the wages of our employes, for the reason that we did not reduce them during the hard times. Most of our men are on piece work, and the amount of their earnings is the result of their own ability and application."

ARE DEFENDED BY A PRIEST

Gen. Funston and Col. Metcalf Not Guilty As Charged

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 23.—Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain in the United States army, defends Gen. Funston and Col. Metcalf from the charges that have been brought against them. He says that churches in the Philippines were not desecrated by American troops but by insurgents and Chinese. The priest is positive that Col. Metcalf did not shoot a prisoner in cold blood, as has been alleged.

In regard to Gen. Funston's challenge to prove the truth of his assertions regarding the looting of Calocan churches, the San Francisco Monitor in a card from its editor, T. A. Connelly, invites the general to bring a libel suit, promising to donate $2,000 to the Red Cross society if he wins it.

DEWEY'S NEW HOME.

The House Which a Host of Admirers Have Given to the Admiral.

BY C. T. BAXTER.

The house which a grateful nation has given to Admiral Dewey as a home and in which he is now installed is admirably suited to the purpose. Its location could not be better, and the interior arrangement is just what the admiral wished.

From the outside it looks modest, comfortable and even somewhat picturesque. There is a little patch of green in front, a rather wide stretch of neighbor's lawn at one side and a pretty back yard carpeted with green and set about with shrubs. A vine climbs up the bay window far above the second story, hiding the brick and framing the windows very cozily.

The house is known in Washington as the Fitch mansion. It is at 1747 Rhode Island avenue. It was built ten years ago by James E. Fitch, a Washington banker, for his own use. Mr. Fitch had built several other houses for the same purpose and was never thoroughly satisfied until this one was finished. Being a bachelor, he had tired of housekeeping, and at the time the committee in charge of the Dewey home fund began looking for a house this one was unoccupied.

When Mr. Fitch found that his house pleased Admiral Dewey, he refurbished it, even hanging on the walls his fine collection of paintings. All but the pictures are included in the purchase price, which was $50,000. Undoubtedly Mr. Fitch let the house go at a great sacrifice, but he was anxious that Admiral Dewey should have the house he wanted.

It is in the fashionable section of Washington. Within a square is Secretary Root's home. Just around the corner, in Connecticut avenue, are the

The town contained several hundred people. The inhabitants were saved from drowning only by the dexterous use of boats.

CHARGES IN LYNCHING CASE.

Court Says Alleged Carelessness of Sheriff Is Main Point Involved.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 23.—Judge Baker instructed the jury in the Tyler lynching case Wednesday in part as follows:

"The court charges that the case has far wider sweep than that which pertains immediately to the parties in this action. This suit grows out of the plaintiff for recovery of damages for the loss of human life which may have occurred through the negligence of the sheriff in the performance of his duty. A preponderance of testimony is incumbent on the plaintiff. It is not necessary to prove all the charges. It is sufficient for the verdict if the jury is satisfied that the defendant failed to exercise the ordinary degree of care that a prudent man would have done."

"Take in consideration all the facts that may have a bearing in the case. Take in consideration the character and habits of the people, and consider whether the evidence shows that there has ever been any mobs in that locality."

"If you find against the sheriff, you must find against the bondsmen."

CLIMAX IN KENTUCKY MUDDLE.

State Board May Not Canvass Returns If the Militia Is on Duty.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 23.—An unexpected climax was reached Wednesday in the election muddle when it was announced from the Goebel headquarters that the state election commissioners would refuse to count the official returns or to issue a certificate of election if Gov. Bradley has the militia in service at Frankfort on the day the board is to meet to canvass the returns.

The claim is made by the Goebellites that the presence of the militia could only be for the purpose of intimidation. As it is undoubtedly the intention of the governor to have the militia on hand, the result is hard to predict.

In Jefferson county (Louisville) Wednesday the Goebel attorneys made formal motions to throw out the entire vote of Louisville. Arguments were heard and the case continued until today.

NO ADDITIONAL EXPENSE

The Fire Police should have as many chemical engines as they want. If the members received the same salary as the "call" men of the department, the company would draw $2,000 a year, and during the past fifty-five years the city would have paid $110,000 in salaries. The members get no pay, however. They work for nothing, and no call man, or paid man either, is called upon to do more dangerous or disagreeable work. The members of the Fire Police are always ready to climb ladders or handle a stream of water. They are always ready, day or night, to turn out with the ambulance and care for the sick or the injured. The engine they ask for will not cost as much as the company would draw in a year if they received the same pay as "call" men. By a readjustment of the assignment of the paid men, another man can be added to the paid force without increasing the expenses of the department. A chemical engine would be of great value. The small extinguishers now carried by the Fire Police are effective in 50 per cent of the fires, and a combination chemical engine and patrol wagon would enable the department to handle a large majority of the fires without throwing water. Water often does more damage than fire. The department should have a chemical engine, and it should be placed in charge of the Fire Police.

A dispatch from Marinette says: The tax commission appointed by Judge Hastings to equalize the valuation of Marinette county for 1897, has filed its report. The result is a victory for the city, which made application for the commission. Its valuation is reduced from $2,950,000 to $2,507,000. All the towns in the county, except Crivitz, were increased. Pestigo was changed from $590,000 to $2,028,000, Amberg was but at $341,250, Wausaukee the same, Gover $245,000, Coleman $179,800, Portfield $126,500 and Crivitz $130,000. The city has made application for a commission to equalize the valuation of 1898 and Judge Hastings has re-appointed the present commission, and application for 1899 will also be made.

Madison, like Janesville, is doing its street work under a section of the uniform charter, and charging the expense to the abutting property. At the last meeting the council selected asphalt pavement for the streets around the capitol park. The total cost of the improvement is estimated to be about $52,070,000, of which the state will pay about $25,000,000, the balance being paid by the abutting property owners, except the ends of intersecting streets, the cost of which, about $6,600, is borne by the city.

Madison charges up the expense of asphalt to the property owners on business streets, so it would appear that people who only had to pay for brick were getting off easily.

Constant Reader—We can hardly

Fire Police with a house and lot, the property would remain in the name of the recipient, yet the company only asks for a chemical engine. Let us give them the engine, and consider the house matter later.

While the taxpayer still continues to complain about the Milwaukee street pavement, nobody hears any very loud complaint from the taxpayers on Fourth avenue. It makes a vast difference, this matter of the ownership of the ox that is gored, and in consequence, the lot of the alderman is an exceedingly happy one.

Perhaps people who are unwilling to buy a chemical engine for the fire police, would be willing to fight the fires, and then again, perhaps they would not.

The people who saw the meteors are the same ones, as a general thing, that saw the flock of airships a short time ago.

There are indications that the Milwaukee street pavement is not as bad as it has been painted, after all.

A Washington audience recently hissed Admiral Dewey. Such is fame.

FIRST MACHINE TOOL.

Potter's Wheel Appears on Monument of Ancient Egypt.

There can be very little doubt that the potter's wheel, or potter's lathe, as it is also termed, represents today the most ancient form of machine tool known. Among the many sculptured records of the trades and occupations which so vividly represent the customs and habits of the ancient Egyptians, the potter and his wheel have been found frequently depicted, and it is curious to note that through the almost countless generations since that time this crude type of lathe has undergone no material modification. The primitive form was evidently a small round table, set on a pivot, and free to revolve, being turned by hand at intervals; and to this device there were added in the course of time such simple conveniences as a table to support it and a foot or a hand power turning arrangement, displaced, in recent years, in possibly a few isolated cases, by actual engine power driving. In general use, however, the potter's wheel of the present time bears all the characteristics of the one which, 4,000 years or more ago, served to turn out pottery attesting unsurpassable taste and skill. It is curious, too, that in none of those ancient records are there shown examples of the forerunner of the common turning lathe as we know it today, even though the art of turning may be traced back to a very remote period. Among Egyptian antiquities that have been found at Thebes and other cities there have been many specimens which exhibited indubitable signs that the material, while in revolution, was subjected to the action of a tool held at rest—legs of stools and chairs, for example, and lamps and musical instruments—and in later centuries, among the Greeks and Romans, the lathe was undoubtedly in common use. Unfortunately, however, none of these early writers have left any account of the lathes and tools employed by their contemporaries.—Cassier's Magazine.

FRIGHTENS WOMEN WITH A REVOLVER

Bold Robber Ransacks Mc-
Key Residence in Broad Daylight.

A PHENOMENAL NERVE

Stands Off Mrs. George Mc-
Key With a Gun and Then Runs Away.

Two Frightened Servant Girls Were
Spectators and Were Prevented
From Raising an Alarm by Being Threatened With Instant Death—
Small Jewel Case is the Only Thing
Missing From the House.

With revolver in hand a lone robber caused a reign of terror to exist this morning at the East Milwaukee street residence of ex-Alderman and Mrs. George M. McKey. At the point of a revolver he confronted Mrs. McKey and two house servants and then made his escape.

At 8:45 o'clock Mrs. McKey left her home to go to the city to do some shopping. The house was left in the care of two women servants who were at work in the rear of the house on the first floor. During the absence of Mrs. McKey a stranger entered the house via the front door which was unlocked. Unknown to the servants the thief quietly made his way around the parlors and sitting room and then to the chambers on the second floor.

At 10 o'clock Mrs. McKey returned from downtown and entering her home, first removed her wraps and then made her way to her bed room on the second floor. As she entered her chamber she was surprised to see a strange man at her bureau.

She was not in the least frightened, as she at first thought that the man was some workman that Mr. McKey had sent to the house. As Mrs. McKey entered the room the robber was in the act of helping himself to articles that were on the bureau. Quicker than a flash he whirled about, and in his right hand held a small jewel box that contained a number of antique relics.

Mrs. McKey then for the first time realized that she was confronted by a thief. She asked him what he meant by such actions. To this question he replied by warning her not to molest him in any way.

The robber then flashed a revolver in his right hand, and opened a door to make his escape from the room. This door led into another room, and seeing his mistake, he backed out.

Then he made his exit through the hall door that he entered.

The servants down stairs hearing the conversation were attracted and as the robber came down the stairs with revolver in hand they confronted him. The thief informed the badly frightened servants that they had better make no outcry if they valued their lives. Then he walked at a rapid rate towards the front door out of which he made his escape.

But little was taken from the house. The box filled with antique articles is the only thing missing.

A good description of the man is in the hands of the police. The thief is dark complexioned, about twenty-six years of age, smooth face, wore a black derby hat and a short light overcoat.

As soon as Mrs. McKey and servants were able to revive from their fright they telephoned to the jail. Sheriff Appleby, Chief Hogan and Officer Brown are now working on the case.

The robbery was as bold a piece of work as has ever been committed in Janesville. After making his escape from the McKey residence the thief walked towards Milton avenue and seemed to take his time being in no particular hurry to walk fast. During the past few days a man answering the description of the robber has been loitering about the Third ward.

CHEERED EXPANSION TALK

Large Audience at the Congregational Church Agree with Dolliver.

The lecture of Congressman Dolliver, the second event in the People's Lecture Course series, at the Congregational church last night, was a notable event. Every seat in the large auditorium was occupied, and the eloquent speaker received the closest attention. His remarks justifying the McKinley expansion policy in the Philippines were heartily applauded. The lecture was rambling, beginning with the writing of the Declaration of Independence to the latest move in the present foreign war. It had no particular aim, except the glorification of the principles of liberty underlying the government of the United States. The address was pleasing and entertaining, and the noted congressional orator made a good impression.

CLARK HAS VALUABLE PATENT

There is a large demand for the machine in all parts of the country as it fills a long felt want.

WHITE CAKE—Whites of six eggs, four cups flour, two cups sugar, one cup butter, one cup milk, two teaspoons baking powder. LENTIL SOUP—Pick over and wash one pint of lentils, put them on to cook with two quarts of cold water and let them heat slowly and simmer until very soft and the water is reduced one-half. Turn them into a puree strainer and rub the pulp through. If some of it seems to cling to the hulls, scrape the hulls out into a pan and pour one cup of boiling water over them. Stir well and then turn all back into the strainer. When all rubbed through, add from one to three cups milk, according as you wish the soup strong or delicate. When boiling, thicken it with flour and butter cooked together. This will keep the pulp and liquid and prevent the settling which is so disagreeable in a vegetable soup. One rounded tablespoonful butter and one rounded tablespoonful flour are sufficient for a quart of the soup. Season with salt and pepper or paprika and serve with wafers or toasted crackers.

Big Ben's Tone.

Whatever complaints may be made against the tone of Big Ben, the famous London clock, and musicians say it is a terribly bad "E" at any rate, every one will acknowledge that the clock in the house of commons tower is a wonderful timekeeper, not varying a second in time all the year through. The mechanism for setting in motion the massive hammer which brings out the tone of Big Ben's sixteen-ton bell is very interesting. The striking machinery is driven by weights of about a ton and a half, which hang on a shaft 174 feet deep, and it is so arranged that after the chimes are over the hammer falls on the big bell within one second of Greenwich mean time.

Prairie-Dogs and Rattlesnakes.

A writer in Forest and Stream describes a victory which he saw gained over a rattlesnake by the inhabitants of a prairie-dog village in the Indian territory. The ugly invader crawled into one of the dog holes, whereupon fifteen or twenty dogs gathered about the place and began to push dirt into the hole. The snake stuck its head up through the dirt, and the dogs took to flight; but the moment the snake entered another hole they flocked about it again, and this time pushed in the dirt so rapidly that the rattler was effectively entrapped. Then the dogs tamped the dirt down hard with their noses, and left the snake to suffocate.

Mrs. A. P. Lovejoy entertained this afternoon at her Park Place home at a delightful ladies' afternoon reception. Invitations to the number of 250 were issued and but few regrets were received. The house was prettily decorated with smilax and cut flowers, and light refreshments were served. Those who assisted the hostess in receiving were: Miss E. Louise Williams, Mrs. O. L. Clark, Mrs. P. F. Stevens, Mrs. Q. O. Sutherland and Mrs. Mary Crosby. The function proved one of most delightful afternoon receptions ever held in Janesville.

Gladstone's Memorial.

London Chronicle: A marble and alabaster Gladstone memorial tablet has been placed in Hawarden church, between the pulpit and Armenian window. In the upper part are the words, "That rock was Christ," and one side are four verses of the late statesman's favorite hymn, "Rock of Ages." On the opposite panel are the same verses in Latin, with the inscription at the foot, "Translated in 1848 by William Ewart Gladstone. Placed by his grandchildren, in love, gratitude and reverence."

Youngest Officer in the World.

Without doubt the youngest officer in the world is the son of the Turkish consul general in Taurus, Persia. He is only two and a half years old. A short time ago the wife of the Turkish plenipotentiary obtained an audience with the crown princess of Persia, and as is the custom of the country, brought along her youngest son. The princess and her spouse busied themselves with the little boy, and the prince took such an interest in him that he made him an officer in the Persian army, and himself fastened the insignia of rank on the boy's breast.

Drawbacks of Life in Kimberley.

Only those who are willing to undergo great hardships in pursuit of wealth should think of going to Kimberley, where Cecil Rhodes is now shut up with the little English force. The town is surrounded by a level, treeless country, nothing higher than an ant-hill appearing above the horizon in any direction. For eight months out of the year there is often no rain at all, and the thermometer often stands for days at 100 degrees in the shade. To add to the discomforts of the residents, fierce, choking storms of dust frequently sweep over the town.

LATE NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

PORT OF DURBAN IN DANGER.

Large Force of Boers Within a Few Miles of Pietermaritzburg.

JOUBERT WILL MEET CLERY.

The Latest Movement of the Transvaal Army Seriously Interferes with the Operations for the Relief of Ladysmith—Command the Railway.

London, Nov. 23.—The Daily News has the following from Pietermaritzburg, under Wednesday's date:

"Your correspondent managed to escape from the Mooi River district yesterday before the arrival of 6,000 Boers, who are looting the farmsteads in all directions. The Natal Boers, encouraged by the successes of the Transvaalers, join in the looting.

"The main body of the Boers made a rapid march from Ulundi, southwest of Estcourt, to a point near Fort Nottingham, south of the railway, in a single day.

"They are within forty miles of Pietermaritzburg at the farthest, and it is said they intend to attack the town."

London, Nov. 23.—The Daily Mail publishes a dispatch from Naunpoort, dated Wednesday, which says that a large force under Gen. Methuen has crossed the Orange river, and is advancing to the relief of Kimberley.

London, Nov. 23.—The Daily Mail says: "We are able to confirm the report that orders have been issued to mobilize a sixth division at Aldershot for service in South Africa or wherever it may be needed."

Durban, Nov. 23.—Owing to the proximity of the Boers to Pietermaritzburg it has been necessary to alter the defenses of Durban.

Estcourt is still silent. All accounts point conclusively to a determined rush of the Boers toward Pietermaritzburg with a large force. Seven thousand men, with guns, are reported twenty-five miles from Howick. They are said to be under the personal command of Gen. Joubert.

London, Nov. 24.—The war office is now reasonably certain that Gen. Joubert is proceeding with a large force to the southward for the purpose of meeting Gen. Clery before the latter's concentration of forces is complete and thus seriously blocking the relief of Ladysmith.

The Boers now have command of the railway from Ladysmith to Estcourt, and from Estcourt to Nottingham they have destroyed most of the bridges and culverts en route. They are making themselves further disagreeable by bombarding the British at Mooi river to fill in the time until Gen. Clery arrives.

Through a series of shrewd strategic movements the Boers now have a total of 17,000 British sowed up in the besieged towns. Ladysmith has 9,000, Estcourt 2,000, Mooi river 2,000, Kimberley 2,000, Mafeking 1,000, and Plumer's column in Rhodesia 1,000.

Seventeen thousand men out of a total of 65,000 does not leave Gen. Buller such a big army after all to meet perhaps 70,000 Boers.

Evidently a considerable force of the enemy is now within thirty or forty miles of Pietermaritzburg, but it is officially announced from there that no anxiety prevails, the garrison numbering a thousand men, with six guns.

Gen. Joubert's plan, apparently, is a daring attempt to defeat the British relieving column from Durban in detail, while still attempting the reduction of Ladysmith.

A serious attack on Mooi river camp is now hourly expected, with the object of destroying the bridge at Weston. Should this be accomplished the Boers would be free to turn their attention again to Estcourt, while if it failed the enemy would retire again on Weenen and rejoin the investing forces around Ladysmith.

The Boer report that Gen. Hildyard's messenger asking Gen. White for assistance was captured causes some uneasiness, but it is argued that if Gen. Hildyard had not been strong enough to hold out he would some time ago have been ordered to retire on Pietermaritzburg. Therefore, small credence is given the story.

Nothing is known regarding the food supplies of the garrisons thus isolated. It is believed that Estcourt is well provided, but there is less confidence in the case of Mooi river.

There is no further news from the western frontier, except the list of casualties.

Natal Paying War Bill.

Natal is reported to be bearing the whole expense of the colonial forces in the field except for rations and ammunition, which is costing $150,000 a month. The colony expects to be repaid by territorial expansion at the expense of the Boers.

Cape Town to Welcome Canadians.

Cape Town proposes to duplicate the reception given the American warships when the Canadian volunteers arrive in a week or two.

Official Statement of Boer Losses.

Lorenzo Marquez, Nov. 23.—A Pretoria official return puts the Boer losses in the war up to present time at ninety killed and 200 wounded.

Sortie at Kimberley.

De Aar, Nov. 23.—A dispatch rider

well at Kimberley when he left that town. A sortie was made on Nov. 16 and the British carried the advance works of the Boers. Nineteen of the enemy were killed. The loss incurred by the British was one killed and eight wounded.

FOUR DIE IN THEIR CABS.

Baltimore & Ohio Engine Crows Sacrifice Themselves.

Garrett, Ind., Nov. 23.—The Baltimore & Ohio's west-bound limited passenger train, drawn by two powerful engines, after passing here ran into the rear end of a freight train near McCool station, a small station fifty miles out of Chicago, Wednesday morning. Both the passenger engines were derailed and their crews were killed. The freight train was almost a total wreck. Its conductor, Mr. Butts, and its rear brakeman, Mr. Hamilton, are missing, and it is supposed they are buried under the debris of their caboose. A special train reached here, bearing the following-named victims of the wreck. Dead:

BRADFORD, HENRY, engineer.
SARBER, E. H., engineer.
ORR, ELMER, fireman.
STINE, JOHN, fireman.

The injured, who were taken to Chicago, are:

Gannon, James, Allegheny, right wrist severely crushed.
Ferguson, F. R., Chicago, postal clerk; bruised about the head and body.
Bloomer, B. J., Newark, Ohio; bruised about body.

Hudson, Frederick, Columbia, Ohio; cut about head and arms, and legs injured.

Each of the dead men leaves a family, and all were among the best known and most valued employees of the road.

ARE TO BE TRIED FOR MUTINY.

Army Officers on Transport Tartar Must Face Charges.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Secretary of War Root will order the court-martial of a number of officers who returned to the United States on the transport Tartar. It is admitted at the department the report of the conduct of officers and men on the Tartar will develop one of the most atrocious stories of the war.

It is said the men mutinied and the officers, who were unable to restrain them, made no efforts to prevent the outrages committed.

The transport was so overloaded at Manila that the British authorities at Hongkong detained it for several days and only released it upon representations of the United States authorities.

Sufficient food was not supplied for the trip home and reduced rations were served during almost the entire journey. In addition to the Twentieth Kansas infantry there were 400 discharged soldiers and a number of sick on board.

It is claimed able-bodied men took food and delicacies intended for the sick, and upon being reprimanded assaulted the officers.

To Use Force if Necessary.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 23.—The republicans and Brown democrats of Campbell county, Kentucky, across the river from this city, have decided to send a picked body of twenty citizens to Frankfort to be present at the official decision in the gubernatorial contest by the state election commission. They resolved to seat Gen. Taylor as governor, peacefully, by preference, but with force if necessary.

Peace at Rio Grande City.

Austin, Tex., Nov. 23.—There has been no further outbreak of hostilities between the colored soldiers of Fort Ringgold and citizens of Rio Grande City, and the civil and military authorities now have complete control of the situation. Gov. Sayers expresses the opinion that the trouble grew out of a conflict between drunken negro soldiers and irresponsible citizens.

Murrain in Alsace-Lorraine.

Strasbourg, Nov. 23.—Murrain and footrot have again broken out among the herds of Alsace-Lorraine and central Baden. Twenty-one districts of Alsace-Lorraine, 180 municipalities and 1,248 stables are infected, and returns from Baden show that the disease has obtained almost as firm a hold in the grand duchy.

Purdue Defeats Illinois.

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 23.—Purdue defeated Illinois Wednesday on Stuart field by the score of 5 to 0, and Capt. Robertson is the hero of all Lafayette. The brilliant quarter-back made a place kick from the field after the expiration of eighteen minutes in the first half, scoring the only five points made.

Wind Wrecks Arkansas Town.

Fort Smith, Ark., Nov. 23.—A telephone message from Paris, Logan county, reports the town of Magazine destroyed by a tornado Tuesday night. Magazine is on the new Choctaw & Memphis road, sixty miles east of Fort Smith. All efforts to reach Magazine by wire failed.

Gold in Cervera's Ships.

Santiago, Nov. 23.—The Cuban wreckers who have been employed during the last six months in stripping the Spanish war vessels destroyed by the Americans in the battle off Santiago are reported have found $190,000 in Spanish gold in the cruiser Almirante Oquendo.

THE YEAR'S NAVAL PROGRAM.

Secretary Long Wants Congress to Spend $25,800,000.

WOULD BUILD EIGHTEEN SHIPS.

Three 13,000-Ton Armored Cruisers of the Brooklyn Type, He Thinks, Should Be Added to Our Sea Forces—Twelve Gunboats to Be Asked For.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Secretary Long's naval program will cost the government $25,800,000, if adopted by congress. The most conservative estimate by judicious naval experts places the total cost of the eighteen ships which will be recommended by Secretary Long in his annual report at that figure.

The scheme embraces twelve 900-ton gunboats, three 13,000-ton armored cruisers of the improved Brooklyn type, and three 8,000-ton protected cruisers of the improved Olympia class. The cost of the small gunboats is placed at $275,000 each, that of the armored cruisers at $4,500,000, and that of the protected cruisers at $3,000,000.

The small gunboats are in the nature of a compromise between the heavier type of 1,000-ton and the smaller of 800-ton, which were suggested for duty in Philippine waters. There are experts who still contend the situation will be more completely met by building gunboats of 300 or 400 tons displacement, such as were used by the Spaniards and as represented in the captured gunboats at Manila. The difficulty would be in getting vessels of that size out to the Asiatic station, but they could be easily transported in sections.

The block in the way of legislation for naval ships is the great expense to which the government will be put in keeping up repairs on ships in commission and in meeting contract obligations of ships under construction. The latter item amounts this year to $18,000,000.

Another difficulty in getting heavy ships built is that only three concerns in the country possess the requisite plant for such work, and those firms are busy beyond present capabilities. The steel producers also have all the orders they can fill and the delays on ships of war are increasing daily owing to the failure of the steel people to deliver material.

The navy department does not expect the recommendations to be adopted by congress, but the suggestions for future construction will be made, with

WOMEN'S SECRETS.

There is one man in the United States who has perhaps heard more women's secrets than any other man or woman in the country. These secrets are not secrets of guilt or shame, but the secrets of suffering, and they have been confided to Dr. R. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help. That few of these women have been disappointed in their expectations is proved by the fact that ninety-eight per cent. of all women treated by Dr. Pierce have been absolutely and altogether cured. Such a record would be remarkable if the cases treated were numbered by hundreds only. But when that record applies to the treatment of more than half-a-million women, in a practice of over thirty years, it is phenomenal, and entitles Dr. Pierce to the gratitude accorded him by women, and the honor paid him by the profession as the first of specialists in the treatment of women's diseases.

Every sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, absolutely without charge. Every woman's letter which contains her secret remains her secret. It is read in private, answered in private, and its contents guarded as a sacred confidence. That no third party should enter into this secret, all replies are mailed, sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, with out any printing or advertising whatever, upon them. Write without fear as without fee, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

PLANS TO BREAK TRUSTS.

National Grange Adopts a Scheme for Disruption of Big Combines.

Springfield, Ohio, Nov. 23.—The National Grange adjourned sine die today. Important in Wednesday's proceedings were the reports of the committees on trusts and the merchant marine, both of which were adopted. The trust committee's recommendations for the suppression of the trusts follow:

First—Official inspection of all corporations, as in the case of national banks. No corporation should be tolerated whose books cannot bear such inspection.

Second—Prohibition of all rebates or discriminations by public carriers.

Third—Taxation of all capital stock.

Fourth—All capital stock should be paid up in full.

Fifth—Severe penalties for violation of law. (a) By forfeiture of charter, fine and imprisonment. (b) By impeachment, fine and imprisonment for all public officials whose duty it may be to enforce the law and who fail to perform that duty.

The merchant marine resolution in substance was adopted as follows:

"That we most heartily desire the upbuilding of our merchant marine, but we are emphatically opposed to the principle of subsidy, and believe the desired results can and will be accomplished without resorting thereto."

FUN FOR THANKSGIVING.

How a Young Matron Will Entertain a Lot of Fortunate Guests.

BY RUTH VIRGINIA SACKETT.

A young matron who expects to entertain a large house party at Thanksgiving time has already planned beautiful decorations for the dining room and collected the following games to be played during the evening. Her guests will include elderly people, young men, maidens and youngsters. She has tried to make the games equally pleasing to all.

The dining room is to look extremely pretty. The walls are to be covered with trailing vines, caught up here and there by bunches of ferns. The mantle is to be banked with ferns and with yellow and red chrysanthemums.

In the center of the table, interspersed with foliage, will be a mound of purple grapes, rosy apples and brown cheeked pears, surrounded by airy ferns and fluffy chrysanthemums.

For souvenirs at each place will be yellow jardinières, small in size, holding tiny pots of growing ferns; also place cards with name and date and appropriate pen and ink sketch.

Vines are to be draped about the chandelier. They will reach to the four corners of the table, where they will be held in place by tall, slender vases filled with yellow chrysanthemums.

Above the centerpiece, fastened to the chandelier, will be a horn of plenty fashioned from cardboard, gilded and thickly twined with smilax, then tied from mouth to end with yellow ribbon, the opening to hang a little lower than the smaller end. Just before leaving the table the hostess is to cut the ribbon which holds the cover on. Out will tumble as many bunches of posies as there are guests present.

Some of the games chosen are very mirth provoking. One of these is a new version of putting the tail on the donkey, only this time it is a new bicycle game.

A rough drawing has already been made on a large sheet of manila paper of a man occupying the back seat of a tandem waiting for his companion to be helped on the other. As many pictures of girls in wheel suits as there are to be persons present have been cut from fashion plates. These are to be numbered. Each competitor is to have one and in turn be blindfolded.

The one who succeeds in placing a picture in the most correct position wins the prize, a box of delicious bonbons.

A game which will cause much merriment, I am sure, is called "the comical concert." The hostess will play a fa-lutar air on the piano, and the guests, who have been provided with thin tumblers and spoons, will strike lightly on the edge of the glass at every place marked by the music. The second time it is played they will clap hands at the same place. The third time men whistle. At the fourth every one laughs. There is then a grand finale of spoons and glasses.

The next game no one can witness without being convulsed with laughter.

It is called "the blind reception." Two people at a time are chosen to take part. After being blindfolded they are turned around three times and then requested to shake hands with one another. After making the effort they can have a chance to watch the funny attempts of the others.

Another amusing feature of the evening will be a game for the older members of the party. It is called "a newspaper game." There will be passed pencils and sheets of foolscap paper. At the top of the paper will be written: "Please make a complete report for tomorrow's journal of what has taken place during this afternoon and evening. Describe the gowns worn by the ladies, the dinner decorations, etc." As several of the guests expected are exceedingly witty, there doubtless will be some clever papers. Half an hour will be the time allowed. Then the papers will be collected and redistributed so that each player gets some other player's report. The reports are then read aloud and guesses made as to the authors. The one who makes the most correct guesses will receive a prize of a basket of flowers.

MUST CROWN HERSELF.

Clara Barton Defines Her Attitude on the Suffrage Question.

A letter from Clara Barton has recently been given to the press which may be of interest to many as coming from one who has devoted her life to the service of her country, which, in turn, refuses her any voice in choosing those who are to rule over its destinies. She says:

I believe I must have been born believing in the full right of woman to all the privileges and positions which nature and justice accord to her in common with other human beings—perfectly equal rights, human rights. There was never any question in my mind in regard to this. I did not purchase my freedom with a price. I was born free, and when as a younger woman I heard the subject discussed it seemed simply ridiculous that any sensible, sane person should question it. And when later the phase of woman's right to suffrage came up it was to me only a part of the whole, just as natural, just as right and just as certain to take place.

And whenever I have been urged as a petitioner to ask for this privilege for woman a kind of dazed, bewildered feeling has come over me.

Of whom should I ask this privilege? Who possessed the right to confer it? Who, had greater right than woman herself? Was it man, and, if so, where did he get it? Who conferred it upon him? He depended upon woman for his being, his very existence, nurture and rearing. More fitting that she should have conferred it upon him!

There is once in awhile a monarch who denies the right of man to place a crown upon his head. Only the great Jehovah can crown and anoint him for his work, and he reaches out, takes the crown and places it upon his head with his own hand. I suspect that this is in effect what woman is doing today. Virtually there is no one to give her the right to govern herself, as men govern themselves, by self made and self approved laws of the land. But in one way or another, sooner or later she is coming to it, and the number of thoughtful and right minded men who will oppose will be much smaller than we think. And when it is really an accomplished fact all will wonder, as I have done, what the objection ever was.

CLARA BARTON.

Notes About Women.

In the figure of "Columbia Protecting the Philippines," one of the most notable figures on the Dewey arch in New York, an American girl welcomed the returning hero of Manila. The artist's model of Columbia was Miss Maude Courtney, a native of Brooklyn.

Rev. Miss Margaret Bowers Barnard was recently ordained and installed as pastor of the First Unitarian church of Chelsea, Mass.

The first woman lawyer to be admitted to the bar in Maine is Miss Helen A. Knowlton, who successfully practices her profession at Rockland.

Jennie Creek, aged 16, who lives at the village of Millgrove, Ind., is the youngest person ever awarded a medal by the French Legion of Honor. Some time ago she discovered a railroad bridge on fire and thoughtfully flagged an approaching train, preventing a probable disaster. There were several distinguished Frenchmen on the train. They took her name, and through them she has now received the gold star of the French Legion of Honor and been made a member of the Humane Society of France.

Among Frenchwomen of letters, particularly those who write on political and serious topics, the name of Mme. Edmond Adam has long been prominent. She recently retired from the editorship of the Paris Nouvelle Revue, which she founded in 1870.

Mrs. Mary Preston Slosson has been appointed chaplain of the Wyoming penitentiary at Laramie. Should Mrs. Slosson increase the percentage of reform, as is probable, women will have proved their usefulness in another department of human endeavor.

DESTINATION IS ILOCOS.

Aguinaldo Believed to Be Making for That Town.

SEEMS TO BE HIS ONLY REFUGE

The Proximity of Gen. Lawton's Troops to Bayombong and the Presence of Unfriendly Tribes Makes It Unlikely That He Will Attempt to Reach That Point.

Manila, Nov. 23.—News from the pursuit of Aguinaldo is not expected for a day or two. Yesterday a report reached Gen. Lawton by courier from Gen. Young that people knowing the country think Aguinaldo's destination is Ilocos.

With Gen. Lawton's troops in a position to move toward Bayombong by every road from the south and with impenetrable mountains, peopled by unfriendly, semi-savage tribes, behind, Bayombong would be a poor refuge.

It is reported that Gen. Lawton is moving northward from Tayug with infantry to head off Aguinaldo.

Gen. Young has only one troop of cavalry and the Macabebes, who originally numbered 300. Aguinaldo is supposed to have two days' start from Avangay.

The Newport and Tartar have arrived.

Passed Through Aringay.

Manila, Nov. 23.—Gen. Young reports that Aguinaldo, with a party of 200, including some women and a few carts, passed Aringay, on the coast between San Fabian and San Fernando, in the province of Union, Friday, Nov. 17. The general adds that Aguinaldo probably intended to strike inland through the Binquina mountains, toward Bayombong, in the province of Nueva Viscaya.

Gen. Young, with cavalry and Macabebes, is pursuing the Filipino leader, part of the American force taking the direction of San Fernando.

In a fight with Aguinaldo's rear guard at Aringay, one Macabebe was wounded and the insurgents retreated. Their loss is unknown.

To Head Off Aguinaldo.

Washington, Nov. 23.—The next move of importance is to be made by Gen. Wheaton, who will go up the coast by transport to Vigan, at the mouth of the Abra river. This will land his forces far to the north of where Aguinaldo is supposed to be, the intention being to cut off his retreat to the north. From the military information bureau it is learned that east of the route Aguinaldo is taking are mountains inhabited by tribes which are not friendly to Aguinaldo, and will be likely to attack him if he attempted to cross their territory. The country along the coast is quite well settled. There are several little rivers, making harbors from which it is feared Aguinaldo may escape by boat. Gen. Young, it is believed, is watching these smaller ports with a part of his force.

Philippine Appeal to Legislators.

Washington, Nov. 23.—A formidable-looking document prepared by Felipe Buencamino, the secretary of foreign affairs of the so-called native Filipino government, and translated into English at Hongkong, has just reached this country. It is addressed to members of the United States senate and house of representatives, and is in the form of an appeal to those bodies to take such action immediately as shall cause the cessation of hostilities in the Philippines and establish the Filipinos as a free and independent people.

THE BLIND RECEPTION.

millar air on the piano, and the guests, who have been provided with thin tumblers and spoons, will strike lightly on the edge of the glass at every place marked by the music. The second time it is played they will clap hands at the same place. The third time men whistle. At the fourth every one laughs. There is then a grand finale of spoons and glasses.

The next game no one can witness without being convulsed with laughter.

The Price of a Suit

Of clothes is not always the true expression of its worth. It is equally true that a really good suit of clothes cannot be sold for less than a certain sum. If you pay less you get less, and when you get down to a certain point what you get is worth nothing and your money might as well be thrown in the street.

Clothes bearing our label are

T. J. ZIEGLER.

the best made in the world.

The price range is adapted to every purse, and each price represents just what twice the amount would buy of made to measure clothes. In buying these garments you get sterling value for your money, and the price is held down just as low as good clothes can be made for. If you seek to save a few dollars by cheaper garments, you get worthless ones and all is wasted. We know this so perfectly well that without hesitation we say that we will give you back your money if you are dissatisfied.

Suits, $10 to $25. Overcoats, $10 to $40.
